HOMELESS FATHER OF 6 KIDS SELLS SHOES OF FAMILY TO HELP ALYSSA MILANO’S SON TRAVEL TO BASEBALL CAMP

Brad Johnson, supporting a family of 7 by panhandling and dumpster diving for pop cans, said, “It broke my heart to hear the plight of millionaire Alyssa Milano and her 12-year-old. I work hard to wash the bedding of my children at the laundromat. A lot of homeless folks don’t go that extra step, but I care deeply about my kiddos.”

Brad admitted that people mocked him for helping a millionaire. “Hold on,” I tell them, “I raise my kids to help those in need.” Brad looks down at one child, “When my toddler took off his shoes and said, ‘This could help.’, we were all on board! We all took off our shoes immediately and sold them. I’m proud of my little saint.” Brad mussed up his hair as the toddler smiled.

TRUMP TOOK STAND TODAY IN FAKE ASSAULT CASE. JUDGE KAPLAN WARNED HIM NOT TO SPEAK ABOUT BEING INNOCENT

Before taking the stand, Judge Kaplan said, "E Jean Carroll is a victim of your assault 30 years ago in a crowded charity event dressing room. Your MAGA political message which makes my skin crawl does not influence how I rule on your fake exculpatory evidence. I am impartial about what spews from your evil heart."

Trump's lawyers objected to Trump having to appear covered in mud, wearing a chain with a lock around his neck. Judge Kaplan explained, "I and the jury are objective enough not to read any meaning behind his appearance and his censored testimony."

Maine Supreme Court Deals Blow to Secretary of State Bellows by Sending her the SparkNotes version of the U S Constitution to help with Comprehension

(picture from WGME Portland on MSN website article)

In a surprise move, the court showed “real concern over her remedial reading skills,” said an unnamed clerk at the Supreme Court. It gave Sec. Bellows the benefit of the doubt that it was a lack of basic Constitutional knowledge, and not soulless hate brewing in a cauldron of totalitarian Trump Derangement Syndrome that allowed such a lapse of judgment to occur.

Lightning Strikes Twice! SNL Mocks Trump for Using the Word 'Homophone', Thought it was Homophobic Slur of Effeminate Cell Phones.

One day after claiming the word “debank” didn’t exist, (it means: to deprive someone of banking facilities), SNL buffoons got a pie in their faces from the financially literate community. Today, Trump used the word “homophone”, and they slammed him for “hating asexual techies.” Dumb comedians never learn their lesson. Trump shot back on Truth Social, “Hey dummies, homophone is a word that sounds like another word but is spelled differently... like cell/sell. Morons!”

SNL staff tried to save face by saying, “We knew it meant something, but just assumed that Trump meant it in a mean way.” It begs the question, why don’t you pick up a dictionary before you speak, homophony. Hint: it’s not what it sounds like.

Mayorkas Says, “Webster’s Dictionary Does Not Define 7-million Illegals Crossing US Borders As Invasion.”

Boston.com

CNN legal expert, George Mason, took a huge sigh of relief on air today. “Articles of Impeachment for Mayorkas are a non-starter because of the dictionary definition of the word ‘invasion’.

Mayorkas’ lies to Congress, 100k fentanyl deaths on his watch, sex trafficking, rapes, child abuse, record high crime, loss of operational control, passive resistance to Cartel infiltration, and breaking Federal and state existing immigration laws are washed clean by this one clever legal loophole.”

“You must meet the dictionary definition.” said a retired law clerk for late Supreme Court legend, Ruth Bader Ginsburg. “This is true of shoplifting or any other crime.” he continued. “When California set the legal limit to shoplifting at $999, it is no longer defined as shoplifting within those parameters. That’s the power of defining a word. For example, if being hit by a felon with a led pipe in a home invasion at night is defined as ‘Psychic Reparations’, then no crime occurred.”

Democrat Strategist Carville Has Proof that Trump Will Soon Challenge Haley to a UFC Cage Match, “Any Monkey can Connect These Dots!”

Carville began, “Everybody knows that Trump is best buds with Dana White of the UFC. Carville pointed to the camera, “Trump said, ‘Haley can’t beat me!’, then he raised ONE FIST IN THE AIR. I do believe that he will challenge her to a pay-per-view, winner-take-all event to help fund the eighty-three million dollars he lost in court yesterday to E. Jean Carroll. He’s a desperate man. I can’t find one person who disagrees with me.” He blew off the interviewer’s suggestion that Trump was referring to the RNC political race.

Carville went to a dark place, staring at the floor, and whispered through his teeth, “She needs this fight more than Trump does. That’s the scary part. I wish her luck. I hope she wears headgear. Nikki can’t weigh more than 110 pounds, but she’s a scrapper. I’ll tell you what. I’ll be watching this one, for sure!”

BIDEN DELIVERS BEST SPEECH IN AMERICAN HISTORY AT A BREWRY YESTERDAY. CHURHILLESQUE, BIDEN BRAGGED THAT HE HAS CREATED “169 JOBS IN WISCONSON.”

<https://twitter.com/i/status/1638950161350098944>

On top of this amazing feat of economic growth, he kept one eye on lowering historically high crime rates. Without boasting, he admitted to keep guns “out of the hands of domestic political advisers.” THIS SHOULD BE CARVED IN STONE!

Debra Hansen PhD, a professor of history ranked this as “the best speech ever given by a man with early dementia.” She said, “Instead of being arrested for elder abuse, his handlers have pulled off a miracle. They have allowed the depth of this man’s mind to shine for all to see.” She went on to explain his cryptic comment, “out of the hands of domestic political advisers’ means to mind your own business, keep your hands to yourself... a beautiful message in today’s caustic cancel culture.”

Major Breakthrough in AI by Zombie-Castrati John Kerry and Charles Schaub. They Proved That When We Become Soulless and Fake, It Helps AI To Seem Human

Silicon Valley billionaires are stunned at the simplicity and profit potential of their amazing discovery. “This will most certainly earn both men a Nobel Prize in Science.” said a Google executive who wished to remain anonymous.

John Kerry gloated before he stepped into his massive private jet in Davos, Switzerland, “We cracked the code, Charles and I! It happened by chance. Our depression pills mixed with having a dead conscience is the fountain of youth.”

Charles Schaub added in breathless tones and thick accent, “Yeah, the inadvertent chemical castration of Big Pharma pills was the missing link. Depression pills will soon be sold over the counter, made into Flintstone vitamins, I predict.”

Hopes are sky-high that voluntary castration operations will triple in the coming weeks. When surgery is added to life-threatening doses of depression pills, the AI-to-human-connection becomes almost intuitive, very user friendly! John Kerry added, “The FDA approval process may be shortened from 10 years to 4 months due to our cozy relationship formed during the years of Covid mandates and millions of deaths.” He nodded with an eerie smile.

Texas Woman Wins Congressional Medal of Honor for travelling out of state for late-term abortion on a Boeing 757

"My timing was perfect!" said Col. Susan Wright, before she received her dishonorable discharge from the Navy for moral turpitude, she accepted the prestigious Congressional Medal of Honor at the White House ceremony on January 23rd 2024 for 5 acts of uncommon valor.

Biden mumbled in deep tones of respect, "Number one. She had the guts to kill her 9-month-old baby as it was delivered to free her up for a Starbucks janitor job. No Joke!"

Here are 4 more acts of Susan Wright's amazing profile in courage:

2. She voluntarily flew on a Boeing 757 flight in first class, despite systemic dangers.
3. She travelled without her emotional support animal Emu called "Daisy Chain."
4. She did not get the flight rerouted for verbal violence, even though she heard the word "capitalism" midflight.
5. Biden bragged about the military paying for what he called, "another heroic notch in our abortion holocaust sales promotion."

Finally, Biden teared up when he said, "Medal of Honor recipient, Susan Wright flew out of state to kill her baby without the support of "Daisy Chain!", her beloved emotional support Emu. The Greatest Generation Move Over! No Joke!" He shook his fist for added gravitas and respect.
